35. Historical background:

Like the neighboring Kennedy house, this Lot 3 West Lake residence consists of an original front-gabled frame home and several additions which have been made in succeeding years. Blacksmith Ferdinand Hagen (1852-1935) built the single-story frame house in 1882, with bedroom, kitchen and dining room additions built in the years prior to 1905. Especially notable is the elaborate corner porch which was added to the house circa 1900.

**paid to have it built*

In addition to Ferdinand Hagen, other locally well known owners of the house were Col. George J. Richards, founder of the Pitkin Guards, the local state militia, and an unsuccessful candidate for mayor of Lake City in the town's first municipal election in 1880. Richards in turn sold to U.S. Forester William Doran in 1913. Doran and his wife, Annie, owning the property until 1976 when it sold to the present owners, the Houstons.

Current owners remodeled the interior, expanded the kitchen, and added a two-car garage and bedroom addition to the north in 1986.
